Many schools lack access to high-speed internet or sufficient devices, making digital learning tools less effective.

Features of the issue include:

- Reliance on physical materials, which can be outdated or limited
- Difficulties in sharing success stories and learning modules
- Limited access for students and teachers in rural or underprivileged areas
- Challenges in maintaining uniform standards across different regions

- Restricted access to diverse and updated educational content
- Difficulties in scaling the program nationwide
- Hindered ability to incorporate innovative digital tools (e.g., online collaboration platforms)

Curriculum and Training Limitations

Another challenge pertains to the curriculum design and teacher training. Many educators lack sufficient training or resources to effectively guide students in social participation activities, especially in areas with limited access to digital platforms and PDF-based materials that could facilitate remote or blended training.

Impact on Students and Schools

Despite the obstacles, the school mayor initiative has shown positive impacts on students' social development and school environments.

Positive Outcomes

- Increased student engagement and motivation
- Enhanced leadership and teamwork skills

- Developing radio or TV programs to reach wider audiences
- Encouraging peer-led training models

Recommendations for Enhancing the Program

To maximize the impact of the school mayor program amid resource limitations, several strategies can be considered:

- Enhance Teacher Training: Provide comprehensive training sessions, possibly through in-person workshops or radio broadcasts, to equip teachers with the skills needed to facilitate social participation activities.
- Develop Localized Materials: Create printed manuals, posters, and activity guides tailored to the cultural context, reducing dependence on digital PDFs.
- Foster Community Partnerships: Engage local NGOs, community leaders, and parents to support student-led projects and ensure sustainability.
- Leverage Low-Tech Media: Utilize radio, community gatherings, and local events to disseminate information and raise awareness.
